Communications:

Committee Reports:

Directors Report: No meeting.

Old Business:

Bills A-3753, S-2565 and proposed Rule changes.

We put together some instructions for our Directors in light of the recent interest in changing the Surveying Profession in New Jersey.

1. We must have our (2) Directors' seats covered at all meetings, conference calls or other special activities of NJSPLS if a Director can not make a function then we need to arrange for an alternate.

Old Business: (cont'd)

2. Insist that all significant items are brought back to the Chapter for input prior to a vote of Board of Directors.
3. Insist that all votes of significant nature be published and be roll call votes to keep track of how the Board members are voting.
4. Ask when we (NJSPLS) are going to get proactive and propose some legislation to benefit the good and welfare of the Land Surveyors of New Jersey.
5. Request that Headquarters send out instructions on how members should address the proposed Rule changes.

Website: Dennis spoke with Wendy Wathrop at the Conference. Jake said she seemed enthusiastic to do the Website.

New Business:

Trijstar Committee Chairman Lemuel Morrison is looking for a contact from our Chapter to be a liaison to the Hightstown School District.

Tom Harris, Jr. volunteered to contact Lemuel Morrison and follow up.

Last year PLSANJ matched the cash prize award NJSPLS. We should do the same the year. Motion by Dennis, 2nd by Fred. Motion passed.

Good and Welfare:

Motion proposed by Jake to allow a budget of $150.00 to rent a passenger van to transport Chapter members to Trenton to oppose Bill A-3753. Motion passed. Details to be worked out, meet at Fezziwigs, van to leave by noon.

* The next day a Good Points came out notifying membership that Bill A-3753 is NOT scheduled to be heard in the Assembly. Updates will follow.

The March meeting was originally supposed to be a joint meeting with the Central Jersey Chapter. This has been moved to the April meeting.
